Democracy in America Volume 1

And this sets the stage for the book's second section, the jungle adventure segment, as Dane is kidnapped by Messenger and Nan and brought to the wilderness of New Guinea the dragon-shaped island of the book's title where he will be coerced to genetically create thousands more of those yard-high, greenish slave workers. Of those other five Williamson books that I alluded to up top, "Dragon's Island," it seems to me, has the most in common with that great tale of modern-day lycanthropy, "Darker Than You Think."
