Ten Years After

In response, the National Librarian has established a Council on Access to Information for Print-Disabled Canadians, which provides advice, identifies funding requirements, monitors progress, and makes recommendations regarding the implementation of the Task Force recommendations. But I really wanted to win, so I looked over the requirements again, and decided that the things I needed to focus on most were my reason for wanting the crown and my spanking talent.

My Long Flirtation

A result is that philosophers have mostly ignored more practical matters and moral facets of the institution of capital punishment. The prisons should not be able to profit from confinement, and the history of contracting private organizations to build inmate warehouses to the detriment of the prisoners and society in general must end.
