The main reasons of the Court can be inferred from the Opinion of Advocate General Vahl, who denies the selectivity of the restructuring clause in the present case because it only restores the general ability to offset loss as the reference system in cases of companies in need of restructuring. The proposal brought forward in by the Commission and then shelved, promised a solution that risked jumping from the frying pan into the fire, since EU governments, no less than credit agencies, have a clear interest in disguising or minimising their own levels of debt.
